With 8 successful seasons on TVE and two different versions on TVE Cataluña and TVE Canarias, this innovative TV format, praised by critics and audiences alike, set the agenda for the entire country and redefined the art of debate. Now it's back, refreshed and ready for the rapid consumption era.

In the fast-paced world we live in, every second counts. '59 seconds' takes that seriously. Imagine a debate show where the panelists only have 59 seconds to ask probing questions or passionately defend their opinions on the week's hottest topics. But there's a twist: if you go over your allotted time, your microphone gets cut. The pressure is on!
