This show, which is appropriate for viewers of all ages, deals with the trials and tribulations of a young, widowed doctor who has to rebuild his life and that of his three children and his adolescent nephew. The show takes on family, personal and professional problems in a humorous yet dramatic way, underscoring their universal aspect. The young doctor is not alone, however; his father and a live-in cleaning lady also set the pace of this family's day-to-day life. His sister-in-law also plays a role, since he will end up marrying her and having triplets with her. His best friend Alfonso and his colleagues from the Health Center will also make appearances.
