
Comedy · 2005 · 10 Seasons / 238x45' · Spain

Aída

Direction: Miguel Cruz Carretero, Jacobo Martos

Script: Nando Abad, Raúl Díaz, Daniel Govantes, Paula López Cuervo, Leyre Medrano, Julián Sastre, Sonia Pastor, Iñaki San Román, Antonio Sánchez, Marta Sánchez, Jordi Terradas, Juan Ramón Ruiz de Somavía, Jorge Anes, Olatz Arroyo, Esther Morales, Alejandro Alcaraz, David Bermejo, Francisco Arnal, Sara Antuña, Tatiana Chisleanchi, Oriol Capel, María Miranda, Rodrigo Martín, Roberto Jiménez, Benjamín Herranz, Sergio Guardado, Almudena Ocaña, Jorge López, Sergio V. Santesteban, Carlos de Pando, Juan Torres, Nacho G. Velilla, David S. Olivas, Nicolás Romero, Jessica Pires, Libe Ortiz, Fer Pérez, Lelé Morales, Jorge Lara, Alberto López, Daniel Monedero, Manel Nofuentes, Txemi Parra, Sofía Cuenca

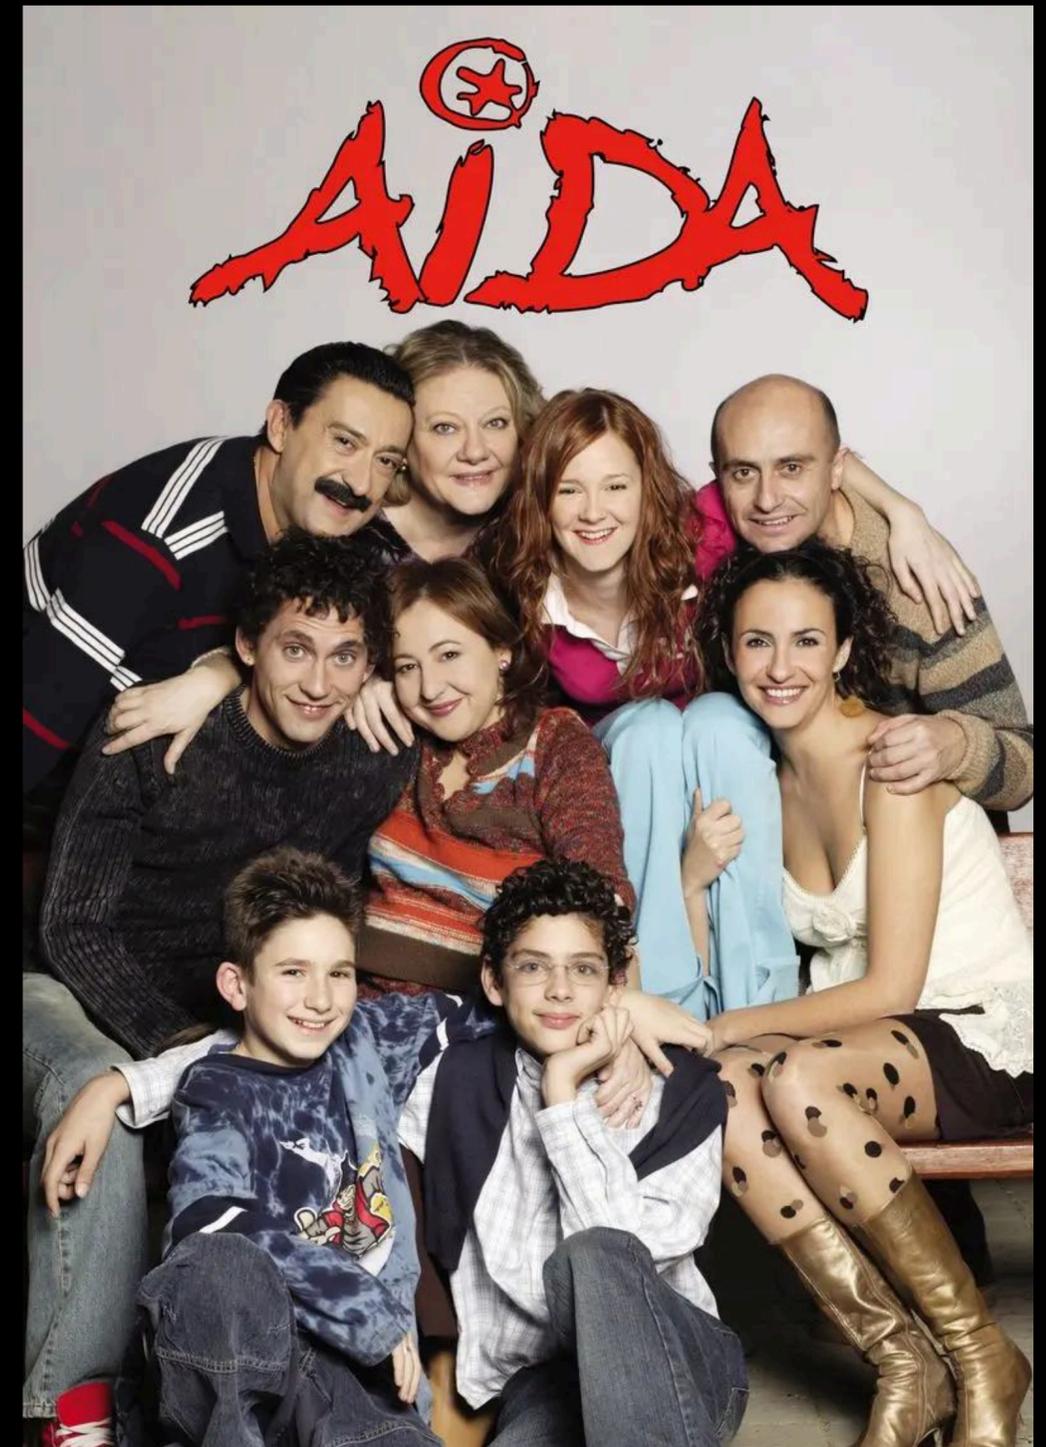

Cast: Carmen Machi, Paco Leon, David Castillo, Marisol Ayuso, Pepe Viyuela, Miren Ibarguren, Mariano Peña, Lola Dueñas, Pepa Rus, Manuela Velasco, Cancó Rodríguez, Melani Olivares, Ana María Polvorosa, Secun de la Rosa, Eduardo Casanova

Producers: Globomedia (The Mediapro Studio)

"Aída" is a sitcom shot in front of a live audience that portrays the hardships of a middle-aged divorcée as she struggles to support her family. Set in a very modest neighborhood, the story is told from an ironic yet realistic point of view. Aída has returned to her small town following her father's death, moving back into the house she was raised in with her children. She will also have to maintain her obnoxious mother as well as her brother -the black sheep of the family. For Aída, life is one big struggle to try and make ends meet.

A legendary Spanish television series, winner of 26 national awards.

Series

Trailer

THE MEDIAPRO
STUDIO
DISTRIBUTION