The Final Duel revisits the early years when Cristiano Ronaldo and Lionel Messi faced off in La Liga, a period during which their rivalry elevated the Spanish league to a new international level.

With Cristiano's arrival at Real Madrid CF and the dominance of Pep Guardiola's FC Barcelona, each Clásico became a global event. Two opposing styles, two unique personalities, and a rivalry that defined an era.

Through exclusive archival footage and first hand testimonies, the documentary explores how Messi and Cristiano changed football forever—just as the upcoming World Cup may mark the final chapter of their era.
